Head Quarters, 1. M.R.
Fort Mearns Jan'y 21. 1862

Acting Asst. L. M. Masters at the different posts are instructed to purchase forage, by private contract in open market at the lowest and most advantageous time to the Government, in case any of the parties now under contract, with the Regt.
L. M. Masters, should fail to supply as stipulated in his contract.

In each case, immediately after such purchase the A. A. L. M. R. will inform the Regimental L. M. R. the amount purchased, the price paid, and whether the Contractor is delivering.

The 1st (McColloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen) was organized about June, 1861, for a five months' term of service. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company B re-enlisted in a company at San Antonio, became Company B, Morgan's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 24, 1862, and formed a part of the 8th (Tanner's) Battalion Texas Cavalry.

The image shows a close-up of a sheet of graph paper. The grid consists of small squares. Handwritten in dark ink are several numbers: '10' at the top left, followed by '40', '110', '40', '110', '40', '110'. Below these, there's a large, bold '9' and a '38'. At the bottom, more numbers like '40', '110', '110', '110', and '110' are visible. There are also various scribbles and faint markings throughout the page, particularly on the right side where some vertical lines resembling '|||||' are drawn. The handwriting is somewhat messy and hurried.

John C. Guthrie of Captain James H. Fay's Company "A" of the 1st Regiment of Texas Mounted Rifles 1st Cavalry, was enlisted by Capt James H. Fay of said Regiment on the 16th day of April 1861 to serve one year. He was born in the State of Iowa is 26 years of age about five feet 9 inches high, dark complexion, brown eyes and dark hair and was when enlisted by occupation a farmer. During the last two months he has been entirely unfit for duty. He accidentally shot himself through the left hand in July last.

James H. Fay

Capt Company

I certify that I carefully examined the said John Guthrie of Capt James H. Fay's Company on the 15th day of August last, and found him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier because of having been accidentally shot through the hand, which entirely deprived him of its use. He was therefore granted a furlough for two months hoping he would in that time so far recover its use as to be able to perform his required duties in the Company. But since which time a letter has been received from Dr. D. M. Palmer of Mesquite Prairie, Texas, stating that the hand of the said John Guthrie continues inflamed - with the fingers closed upon the palm - and fragments of the bone occasionally falling out.

This statement, together with my previous examination, would cause me to recommend that he be discharged from the service,

The 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen) was organized about June, 1861, for twelve months. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company H re-enlisted in a company which finally became Company B, Morgan's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 28, 1862, and formed a part of the 8th (Taylor's) Battalion Texas Cavalry.

Brother, I know to be a true patriot & as long as he is man as living.

It is known that steps are being taken to secure the release of his merits and I believe you and I should most respectfully request that you will suspend further action until we can hear further from him. I am sure that you will be thankful to you to know that steps are being taken to secure the release of his merits, if such redress is possible.

Yours truly,

Fayetteville, Texas, Dec. 18th 1861.
Genl. F. P. Hebert

Dear Sir.

Though a stranger to you, may I not claim the privilege, as a fellow citizen & patriot, and as an old soldier (who, long years ago, encountered the storming of battle in more than one battle-field in behalf of Texian Independence), of addressing you with the freedom of a Brother on a subject of most painful interest to myself? I take it for granted that you will accord me this privilege, and hear me for my cause, which is both one of humanity & justice.

But before detailing my narrative, as I am an entire stranger to you, I will further state that I am a cousin of Judge W. P. Hill of the Confederate States, Court, which was recently in session in Galveston, and of the Hon. Gen. H. Hill, who is now a senator in the Confederate Congress ^{from Ga.} That I am an old Texian having fought in the Battle of San Jacinto and various other minor battles, in Texas. For further particulars of my respectability, allow me to refer you to Col. E. B. Nichols & Capt. W. Shropshire of your command.

I write to you in behalf of my Bro. Capt. A. C. Hill, a Soldier in Col. H. B. McCulloch's Regt. -- and I have a statement to make concerning him, which I hope you will hear patiently and favorably. And first I will give you something of his previous history. When a boy about 14 years old he was attacked with White Swelling, and was confined to bed for many months, during which time all the bone, from the knee to the ankle, in one of his legs, decayed & worked out. From that day to the present he has been an invalid & a cripple. His leg has never since been sound, and the bones have been working out in small fragments at intervals of every few months.

Nevertheless, being naturally very energetic, high spirited and enterprising, he has led an active life, chiefly on horse-back, and has ever been one of the foremost to rush to the rescue when his country has needed his services. He was with Genl. Walker in Central America, and was one of his Adjts. After his return from Central America, he was one of the first to raise a company for the suppression of the Cortinas Raid on the Rio Grande, and for several months rendered very efficient service as Capt. of a spy com. in that campaign. Again, when our present trouble broke out, he was among the foremost to assist as a volunteer in the capture of the Federals, at San Antonio, & Indianola. About this time, Col. H. E. McCulloch's Regt. was raised, and he attached himself to it & marched with it immediately to the Northern Frontier of Texas, & from that time his family rarely heard from him until quite recently. (He had occasional letters from him, & friends of his in the service, but no intimation that he was in any trouble until a short time after his Trial, then we read letters from his friends, which were written without his knowledge, informing us that he had been under arrest for several months & had been tried by a Court Martial, but that the decision could not be known until it had been passed upon by the Commander-in-Chief of the Department of Texas. Every one of those letters represent that he had been very unjustly & cruelly treated by the Officers. One of these letters, addressed to Capt Hill's wife, was written by a stranger to us, but who says that he is a friend & confidante of Capt Hill & acted as his counsel at the trial. His statement is too long to detail to you here. It is in substance as follows: He says that Capt Hill applied to Col M. Cullock for an appointment as guide to one of the Co's of his Reg. & that Col M.C. partially promised him the situation. That Capt Hill was present when Capt Nelson's Com. was mustered into the service, and made an arrangement with Capt Nelson to accompany his command to the frontier, Capt N. promising to procure him the appointment as guide to his Co. That he thus accompanied Capt Nelson as guide, to the Concho Station. That he never was mustered into the service as a private. That his name was never mentioned in Roll-call. That he never was detailed to stand guard. That after they reached the Concho Station during a short absence of Capt Hill, ^{on duty} another guide was appointed. That on Capt Hill's return he demanded of Capt N. the reason of the change, and that Capt. N. replied that Capt. M.C. had blinded his companies & appointed but one guard for the two. That soon after this Capt. N. was ordered to stand guard. That he went immediately to Capt. N.

 & reminded him that he had never joined the Com. as a private & had told him at the start that he was not able to perform foot service, & pulled off his boot & showed to Capt. N. his incapacity. That Capt. N. expressed himself perfectly satisfied, & excused him, but requested him to get a certificate from The Surgeon of his incapacity. Which Capt. N. did. That soon afterwards a scouting party started out from Leaches St. & Capt. N. volunteered to go as one. That the first night they were out Capt. N. was ordered on guard. That he demanded to know if Capt. N. had ordered him to be put on guard & was answered, "No." That he then told the guard officer that he had never enlisted as a private & had made satisfactory arrangements with the Com. & would not stand guard. That on the return of the scouting party, the guard officer reported him to Capt. Nelson, & that he, Nelson, being intoxicated at the time, ordered Capt. N. to be disarmed and placed under guard. That Capt. N. refused to give up his arms to the Seryt & went immediately to Capt. N. & asked if he had ordered his arrest. That Capt. N. replied he had, & that Capt. N. seeing that Capt. N. was intoxicated replied "all right" & delivered up his arms & was placed under arrest. That next morning, Capt. A. having recovered ^{from} his intoxication, & seeing the wrong he had done, wished to release Capt. H. But that Capt.

 Fry objected, & that he had been kept under arrest ever since. That Capt. Hill had repeatedly demanded a trial, and a copy of the charges, but could get neither for months, & never saw ^{or} knew what the charges were, until the trial came on. That he had therefore taken written notes that were worthless, & left out others that were important. That the Judge Advocate was Capt. Hill's most bitter enemy.
 That Capt. H. had formerly had a difficulty with one of the officers of the ~~regiment~~ ^{regiment}, but that his objection to that officer's sitting on the case was overruled by the Court.
 That finally the trial had been hurried through, & Capt. Hill was still in the dark as to the decision. & The writer says that he believes the confinement of Capt. Hill will be protracted as long as possible, by some of the officers, in order to prevent an exposure by Capt.
 Hill of their rascality & tyranny; but adds that whatever may be the decision of the Court, Capt. ^{Hill} can & shall be set right before his country & the world, if the testimony of two whole companies can do it. He further says that he could fill 20 pages with details of the cruelties & tyrannies that have been practiced upon Capt. H. His statement fills up 7 pages closely written. He seems to be a man of intelligence, but I fear

As may not have been competent to conduct a military trial.

Since these events we have heard, through several sources, that Capt Hill's sentence was, that "he should be dishonorably discharged & forfeit his pay." And that on receiving the sentence Capt Hill replied, that "he would die before he would receive a dishonorable discharge," and demanded a new trial; and that he has therefore been kept under arrest and is now sentenced to hard labor for 60 days. This seems to me a very hard and cruel case. Is there no remedy? No way to prevent the execution of this cruel purpose of his enemies. I tell you that he has bitter enemies in Office in that Reg. That have been such for years, in the County of his residence, owing to a difficulty about a College with which Capt Hill's lady was once connected, and in opposition to which, Capt. Hill & Lady built up an opposition school numbering 80 or 90 scholars. Some of his principal enemies in that affair are influential officers of the Reg, & judging them by the past they will not scruple to stoop to any thing to glut their revenge on him. Can you do any thing for him, or point out to me a course by which his case may be reached & his last sentence repealed & his former sentence reversed? If you call on you, in the name of humanity, & of justice, to do it speedily.

My Bro is a high minded, honorable man, - a gentleman & a christian who has ever been noted for his rectitude, sober habits, patriotism & energy.

Ever ready to serve his country even beyond his ability. And now, alas, his promptitude to fly to his country's service, ^{in her hour of greatest need,} has been consigned into a fault, by his commanding Col., who blames him for imposing himself on the service, when he knew himself to be a cripple & an invalid. Would you have believed this of Col. McCulloch?

I have it from his sign manual, in answer to a letter of inquiry addressed to him by a friend of my brother's. But McCulloch says he has had nothing to do with the case, except to order the court before which he was tried.

I fear that I have exceeded your patience, but the interest I feel in a dear & misused brother, is my sufficient apology.

I crave of you an early answer as to what can be done, and am

Yours humble servant

Mrs. K. E. Fleming

Dear Mrs. Fleming:

Reference is made to your letter of 5 May 1952, herewith returned.

The records show that Lafayette K. Hill, a private of Company K, 1st Regiment (McCallister's) Texas Cavalry, which subsequently became Company D, 6th (Taylor's) Battalion Texas Cavalry and finally Company I, 1st Regiment (Taylor's) Texas Cavalry, Confederate States Army, enlisted 15 June 1861 at Hubbard Creek, Texas, aged 19 years and born in Missouri. The company master roll for January and February 1864, latest on file, shows him "Absent on extra duty as Teamster." No later record of him has been found.

This collection of records is by no means complete, and failure to find the entire record of Confederate military service does not indicate necessarily that an individual did not serve at some period not covered by the records.

Sincerely yours,

I have the honor to enclose certificate of disability for discharge of private John S. Hodges, Capt. Kings Co. Regt. Arizona Brigade also copies of previous discharges for disability.

Private Hodges has been on detached service at this post since --- and in my employ since July 1st 1864.

He is unfitted for any employment requiring the least activity and labor.

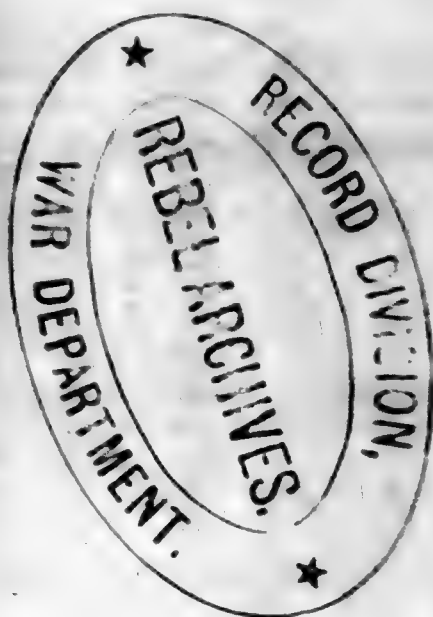

The discharge is recommended for the reason together with the fact that he has an opportunity of engaging his services as overseer on a plantation where a conscript, an able bodied man is now employed and who will be placed in service should Private Hodges be discharged.

I beg leave to request the favorable consideration of the Maj Genl Comd in this case.

The 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen) was organized about June, 1861, for twelve months. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company H re-enlisted in a company which finally became Company H, Morgan's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 22, 1862, and formed a part of the 9th (Taylor's) Battalion Texas Cavalry.

This company was successively designated as Captain Homsley's Company and Captain Homsley's Company, 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen, and Company G, 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry.

The 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as the 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen) was organized about June, 1862, for twelve months. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company B re-enlisted in a company which finally became Company B, Morris's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 22, 1862, and formed a part of the 8th Cavalry's Battalion Texas Cavalry.

The records show that George H. Jackson, aged 18 years, private, Captain James H. Fry's Company, 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers, which subsequently became Company A, 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, also known as the 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen, Confederate States Army, enlisted 16 April 1861 at Webberville [Texas]. The company muster roll, the only roll on file, does not show him absent.

The Regimental Return for September 1861 shows him absent "on scout with Lt Thomas to Ft McKavett & Terrell" and no later record of him has been found.

This collection of records is by no means complete and failure to find an entire record of Confederate military service does not indicate necessarily that an individual did not serve at some period not covered by the records.

The 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen) was organized about June, 1861, for twelve months. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company H re-enlisted in a company which finally became Company B, Morgan's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 2, 1862, and formed a part of the 2nd (Taylor's) Battalion Texas Cavalry.

The 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen) was organized at Austin, Tex., 1861, for twelve months. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company H re-enlisted in a company which finally became Company B, Morgan's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 20, 1862, and formed a part of the 4th (Taylor's) Battalion Texas Cavalry.

Sir. The undersigned would respectfully ask for a "Leave of Absence" for thirty days, beginning about the 8th of March. My reasons are, I have some very important business, which needs my attention, and in addition to that, my brother ^{from Virginia} will be in Austin about that time, and I am very anxious to see him regard to going into service next year. I make the application at this late date, for the above stated reason, and I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

Camp Fort Tule Jan 3rd 1862

Dear Sir. -

You will please excuse me for addressing you with these few lines. But such is the circumstances under which I am placed at present, that I am entirely ignorant as to whom to address in order to obtain a furlough for thirty days. The circumstances referred to above, are those, I have heard, that you have been promoted. And since Col. Frost was to take command of this (the first) Regiment. Such being the case, I do not know which of you to address. And should I be wrong in asking you to grant me a furlough I hope that you will pardon me for so doing.

The circumstances upon which I apply to you for a furlough are these, I left home, and all my business, with the expectation of returning within about six weeks, and came to Camp Colorado and Fort Chadbourne, with Captain Healy, and when it was sent to take the above

same place, and remained in said place until the Company was mustered out of service, which was about three months.
And Captain Davidson (who was then raising his Company) promised me if I would join his Company I might go home and arrange my business but before he (poor fellow) had time to fulfill said promise, he was killed by the Indians, and I have not had a chance to go home, nor have I received a letter from home since I left, which was the 15th of Jan 1861. Now if you think this excuse sufficient, to grant me a furlough upon, and will do so I shall be very thankful for it, and under many obligations to you. But should you deem my plea insufficient, and do not grant my request, I shall not think hard of in the least, as I am well aware that that you always accommodate your men, when you can do so without laying yourself liable to higher authority.

I am, dear Sir, with sentiments of due respect,

Yours S.C.

Adj. Gen. Adj. Gen.

HEAD QUARTERS, TROOPS IN TEXAS,
SAS ASTORIA, MAY 22ND, 1861.
GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 2.

I. By a General Court Martial which assembled in this city on the 17th instant, in pursuance of Special Orders No. 13 (current series), from these Headquarters, and of which Captain James H. Fry, 1st Regiment of Texas Mounted Rifles, is President — were tried:

1st. Private R. W. Brynsole, of Company "B," Texas Mounted Rifles, being a member of the Guard, and who had been arrested at camp on the 14th, 15th, and 16th inst. This on or about the night of the 14th of May, 1861.

FINDING AND SENTENCE:

The Court finds the accused, Private R. W. Brynsole, of Company "B," Texas Mounted Rifles, guilty of the specification and of the charge, and sentences him "to be confined under charge of the Guard for thirty [30] days, and on bread and water for the same period."

2nd. Private John McGraw, of Company "F," Texas Mounted Rifles.

CHARGE:

Violation of the 1st Article of War.

SPECIFICATION: In this, that Private John McClure, of Company "F," Texas Mounted Rifles, did, on the 15th of May, 1861, whilst in a state of intoxication, strike a commissioned officer of his Company. All this in the city of San Antonio, Texas.

FINDING AND SENTENCE:

The Court finds the accused, Private John McClure, of Company "F," Texas Mounted Rifles, guilty of the specification and of the charge, and sentences him "to march for twenty days on foot, whilst the troops are on the march, and be kept in charge of the Guard until this sentence is fulfilled."

3d. Private John J. Journeay, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry.

CHARGE I:

Violation of the 38th Article of War.

SPECIFICATION: In this, that he, Private John J. Journeay, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry, did, on the evening of May 12th, 1861, sell, dispose of, or otherwise make away with his gun, the property of the Confederate States.

CHARGE II:

Violation of the 45th Article of War.

SPECIFICATION: In this, that he, Private John J. Journeay, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry, was so drunk whilst a member of the Guard as to be totally unfit to perform any duty. All this at San Antonio, Texas, on or about May 12th, 1861.

FINDING AND SENTENCE:

The Court finds the accused, Private John J. Journeay, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry, "to the specification to the first charge not guilty; to the first charge, not guilty; to the specification to the second charge, guilty; to the second charge, guilty—and sentences him to twenty days' hard labor, in charge of the Guard.

4th. Private Thomas Fitzgerald, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry.

Violation of the 9th Article of War.

SPECIFICATION: In this, that he, Private Thomas Fitzgerald, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry, did, on the afternoon of May 8th, 1861, attempt to shoot Corporal John Ramsey, of the same Company and Regiment, in the Company quarters.

CHARGE II:

Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline.

SPECIFICATION: In this, that he, Private Thomas Fitzgerald, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry, was so drunk on the afternoon of May 8th, 1861, as to be perfectly unfit to perform the duties of a soldier. All this at San Antonio, Texas, on or about May 8th, 1861.

FINDING AND SENTENCE:

The Court finds the accused, Private Thomas Fitzgerald, of Company "A," C. S. Cavalry, guilty of the specification to the first charge, guilty of the first charge, guilty of the specification to the second charge, and guilty of the second charge, and sentences him "to thirty days' hard labor in charge of the Guard."

II. The proceedings and findings of the Court in the foregoing cases are approved.

The sentences in the cases of Private John McClure, Company "F," Texas Mounted Rifles; Private John J. Journeay, Company "A," C. S. Cavalry, and Private Thomas

The 1st (McCulloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen) was organized about June, 1861, for twelve months. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company H re-enlisted in a company which finally became Company B, Morris's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 28, 1862, and formed a part of the 8th

Sir.

I have recently received communications from Home stating that my Father was in very feeble health and was having some very urgent Business that demands my immediate attention I would respectfully request of you to grant me a leave of Absence for 30 days, so that I may go and attend to my Business and also to see my Father.

Col. H. H. H. H. will be in Galveston by the time this arrives and I presume he will approve it, Anticipating General that the above will meet with your approbation I will advise. Suffice to say that I have been in the Service for 8 months and this is the first time I have ever applied for a leave of Absence, and I would not have applied at the present. But having very urgent Business and my Father being in very ill Health, is the reason that I have applied. Pray you will please grant it to me as soon as you possibly can. and I shall ever hold you in the most grateful remembrance as long as Providence continues to protect the frail tenure of my existence.

Direct your communication to Camp Sarina

The 1st (Mc Culloch's) Regiment Texas Cavalry (also known as 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Rifleman) was organized about June, 1861, for twelve months. Six of the companies were mustered out at expiration of term of service. Most of the members of Company H re-enlisted in a company which finally became Company B, Morgan's Regiment Texas Cavalry. The other four companies re-organized May 25, 1862, and formed a part of the 8th (Taylor's) Battalion Texas Cavalry.

Sir

I have the honor to respectfully request a furlough for thirty days, for the following reasons By the occupation of Andinola by the enemy by the my wife and two small children have been under themselves, they send nothing when they left but their clothing -
That they are now on the Snows River in Jackson County, without means or protection -

I have been in the service of the Confederate States since October 1861, and have had but twenty days leave during that time, and have never been absent without leave or absent sick -

I therefore most respectfully submit the above for the favorable consideration of the Gen Command

Very Respectfully

I would most respectfully state that there are, three Sergeants, three Coops, and forty three privates ^{present} for duty in my company -

That there are two privates absent with leave from the company, there are none without leave, the two with leave are exchanged prisoners, furlough officers at the ^{end} of the present month

Very Respectfully

Sir

I would most respectfully submit if consistent with the interest of the service, leave of absence of thirty days for medical duties to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Claiborne. The reason for wishing this leave has I believe already been explained to you by Mr. Claiborne's wife, I believe.

Also I would include in this application myself, I believe, who has important business that needs his presence in New York for a few days. I have written Mr. Claiborne a letter in which I have mentioned the matter in charge of which has notified him of his intention to have on the 12th of January and private George Smith who is a family and general man. New Brunswick, which was the first man. I will add that the three latter parties applying have been faithful soldiers and do not wish to be absent from their duties. An early answer to this application is earnestly solicited.

COPY OF CLIPPING FROM TEXAS PAPER RECEIVED WITH CASE July 26, 1935.MC

Camp Cooper, Texas, October 29, 1861.

Died on the 23rd instant of typhoid fever, Cr. Mr. and Commissary Sergeant Solomon Owens, a member of the Company C. 1st Regiment Texas Mounted Riflemen, C.S.Army. The deceased was born and raised in Monroe County, Tenn. son of Charles Owens, near Sweetwater, Depot. The deceased left his home some two years ago for this State. On the 7th of May he was mustered into the Confederate Service for the term of twelve months to protect the Texas frontier.

Mr. Owens having no acquaintances in the Company of which he was a member from his native State who was familiar with his parents and your humble writer a member of another Company, formerly from the County of McMinn, Tenn., and well acquainted with the deceased and family he deems it a duty incumbent on him to give intelligence of his death to the parents, brothers, sisters and friends.

In the death of our friend our Country has lost a valiant defender and the Company of which he was a member a brave soldier and a genial companion. It pleased Providence to inflict upon us the loss of our esteemed comrade in arms, we humbly bow to the divine dispensation and acknowledge there in the Omnipotent hand that rules alike in War and in peace.

The undersigned tenders his condolence to the family of the deceased in their sad bereavement.
